Talvor Wows at QLD RV Show

Two new vehicle models from Australian RV manufacturer Talvor Motorhomes have impressed industry pundits and the general public alike at the Queensland Caravan and Camping Show. Held from June 3 to 9 at Brisbane's RNA showgrounds, the show was described as the "perfect platform" to debut the new vehicle models by Talvor Business manager Paul Truman.

The two new four berth motorhomes, the Stradbroke and MacLeay, enjoyed high traffic throughout the show. Talvor exhibition staffer and sales manager Phil Casey said "everyone was very impressed by both the Stradbroke and MacLeay. They offer welcome alternatives to traditional motorhome layouts,"

Built on the popular VW Crafter chassis, the four berth Stradbroke motorhome is a new innovation from the Talvor Motorhomes team, designed in conjunction with Queensland RV. This motorhome presents a range of alternative layouts for the discerning RV enthusiast.

Layout options include an East/West island bed, full café dinette or optional lounge. The Stradbroke's bevy of luxury features include separate shower and toilet, large fridge/freezer, external awning with large underneath storage bin, slide-out stainless BBQ, external shower, 19" high-def flat screen TV/DVD player and outside entertainment unit.

Truman said that the Talvor MacLeay was "designed after extensive feedback from self drive enthusiasts, the vehicles luxury appliances and fixtures have been selected with upmost care."

Features include deluxe kitchen facilities, electric bed lift system, external sound system, generator, quality upholstery and a 19" high-def flat screen TV and DVD player. The open plan food preparation areas, a comfortable and practical living section and easy access to sleeping quarters are very popular with clients.

Since their inception, Talvor has grown to become the largest Australian recreational vehicle manufacturer in their class. The company's range of quality campervans and motorhomes is available for retail sale in Australia and New Zealand. Talvor offers a very popular and successful "try before you buy" option via the Apollo Motorhome Holidays rental fleet.
